Poem

Four Bright Coins

Four bright coins shining at me,
The first one said, “I’m a penny you see.”

The second one said, “How do you do?”

I’m called a nickel, and I’m bigger than you!”

The third one said, “You’re both small stuff,
If you want to buy something, you’re not enough!

But look at me, I’m small, and I shine,

I can buy something cuz I’m a dime.” The last coin looked at them all and laughed,

“All of you together don’t measure
up to me,

Cuz I’m a quarter, can’t you see?”
